

Operation Embrace

Efrat Ravid, who was wounded in the suicide bombing of Jerusalem's Moment Café on March 9, receives a laptop computer as a gift yesterday from "Operation Embrace" volunteers (from right) Aviva Tessler, Lindsay Nadel, Gail Nadel, and Jocelyn Krifcher at Jerusalem's Hadassah-University Hospital in Ein Kerem. "Operation Embrace," a non-profit organization set up by Washington, DC residents for Israeli terror victims sent volunteers laden with hundreds of personal get-well letters from people in the US to Israel this week. Some 100 Israeli families whose loved ones were wounded in terrorist attacks over the last year and a half have received gifts from "Operation Embrace" members. (Text: Edger Lefkovitz; photo: Isaac Harari)